LEADERSHIP

I'd like to invite you to join me in a Think Tank!
John Maxwell says, "Who you learn from is as important as what you learn."
So...what are you learning? And from whom?

It is not always easy to make time for continued growth personally or professionally. What if growth could come to you at your desk or on your phone twice a month and be catered to exactly what you need to unlock the challenges and obstacles facing you and/or your business? Welcome to Think Tanks!

- Networking - Talk, exchange tips, tricks, challenges, and successes.
- Leadership Development - A different topic each time, with material provided by your Leadership Coach/Thinking Partner.
- Peer Sharing - Share your challenges or hone ideas in a confidential, supportive group of people you get to know and trust.

Groups form with a max of 10-12 individuals and meet twice monthly.

Each 1 hour call will be recorded/archived so you can listen back if you miss a week.
